

BERRY CORPORATION (bry)
CHARTER OF THE NOMINATING & GOVERNANCE COMMITTEE
OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS
(Amended as of March 23, 2020)

The Board of Directors (the “Board”) of Berry Corporation (bry) (the “Company”) has established the Nominating & Governance Committee of the Board (the “Committee”) with authority, responsibility and specific duties as described in this Nominating & Governance Committee Charter (this “Charter”).

I. Purposes

The purposes of the Committee are to:

- A. Advise the Board and make recommendations regarding appropriate corporate governance practices and assist the Board in implementing those practices;
- B. Assist the Board by identifying individuals qualified to become members of the Board, consistent with the criteria approved of by the Board, and recommending director nominees to the Board for election at the annual meetings of stockholders or for appointment to fill vacancies on the Board;
- C. Advise the Board about the appropriate composition of the Board and its committees;
- D. Lead the Board in the annual performance evaluation of the Board and its committees;
- E. Direct all matters relating to the succession of the Company’s Chief Executive Officer (“CEO”);
- F. Perform such other functions as the Board may assign to the Committee from time to time;
- G. Assist the Board in its oversight of the Company’s Environmental, Social and Governance (“ESG”) risks and provide oversight and guidance to management with regards to ESG matters and the development of a formal reporting process; and
- H. Develop and maintain a governance process for activist investor proposals.

II. Membership

The Committee must consist of not less than two non-management members of the Board. Each member of the Committee must be “Independent” as defined by the listing requirements of The NASDAQ Stock Market LLC (the “NASDAQ”).

Any vacancy on the Committee will be filled by, and any member of the Committee may be removed with or without cause by, an affirmative vote of a majority of the Board. If a Chair is not designated by the Board or present at a meeting, the Committee may designate a Chair by majority vote of the Committee members then in office.

III. Authority and Responsibilities

The Committee is delegated all authority of the Board as may be required or advisable to fulfill the purposes of the Committee. Without limiting the generality of the preceding statements, the Committee has the authority, and is entrusted with the responsibility, to take the following actions:

A. Authority

The Committee has the authority to:

1. Conduct or authorize investigations into any matter within the scope of the responsibilities delegated to the Committee as it deems appropriate, including the authority to request any officer, employee or advisor of the Company to meet with the Committee or any advisors engaged by the Committee.
2. Retain and determine funding for independent legal counsel and other experts and advisors, including the sole authority to retain, approve the fees payable to, amend the engagement with, and terminate any search firm to assist the Committee in identifying director candidates, as it deems necessary or appropriate to fulfill its responsibilities. The Committee may also utilize the services of the Company's regular outside legal counsel or other advisors to the Company. The Company must provide for appropriate funding, as determined by the Committee, for payment of (a) compensation to any advisors employed by the Committee; and (b) ordinary administrative expenses of the Committee that are necessary or appropriate in carrying out its duties.
3. Delegate to its Chair, any one of its members or any subcommittee it may form, the responsibility and authority for any particular matter, as it deems appropriate from time to time under the circumstances. However, subcommittees do not have the authority to engage independent legal counsel and other experts and advisors unless expressly granted such authority by the Committee. Each subcommittee will keep minutes and regularly report to the Committee.

B. Responsibilities

The Committee has the following responsibilities:

Corporate Governance

1. The Committee will prepare and recommend to the Board for adoption appropriate corporate governance guidelines and consider any other corporate governance issues that arise from time to time and develop appropriate recommendations for the Board.
2. The Committee will periodically review and reassess the adequacy of the Company's corporate governance guidelines and recommend any proposed changes to the Board for approval.

3. The Committee will periodically review and reassess the size and composition of the Board and recommend any changes to the Board for approval.
4. The Committee will, as needed or requested by the Board Chair or Lead Independent Director, assist the Audit Committee in the review of management's monitoring of the Company's legal and regulatory compliance programs and Code of Conduct.

Director Nominations

Except where the Company is legally required by contract or otherwise to provide third parties with the ability to nominate directors, the Committee will perform the following actions:

5. Identify individuals qualified to become members of the Board, consistent with the criteria approved by the Board, and recommend to the Board the persons to be nominated by the Board for election as directors at the annual meeting of stockholders, and the persons to be elected by the Board to fill any vacancies on the Board.
6. Prior to recommending to the Board that an existing director be nominated for election as a director at the annual meeting of stockholders, the Committee will consider and review the director's:
 - past Board and committee meeting attendance and performance;
 - length of Board service;
 - personal and professional integrity, including commitment to the Company's core values;
 - service on boards of directors of other companies;
 - ongoing willingness to commit the required time to serve as a Board member
 - relevant experience, skills, qualifications and contributions that the existing director brings to the Board;
 - contributions to the Board's overall diversity of skills, expertise, industry knowledge, opinion, perspective and other attributes and experiences, including, but not limited to, age, gender, ethnicity/race and education; and
 - independence under applicable standards.

7. In the event that a vacancy on the Board arises, the Committee will seek and identify a qualified director nominee to be recommended to the Board for either appointment by the Board to serve the remainder of the term of the director position that is vacant or election at the next annual meeting of stockholders. The Committee will ensure that candidates with a diversity of age, gender, ethnicity/race, education and such other forms of diversity that it considers appropriate are included in any pool of candidates from which the Board nominees are chosen. To identify such a nominee, the Committee should solicit recommendations from existing directors and senior management. These recommendations should be considered by the Committee along with any recommendations that have been received from stockholders as discussed below. The Committee may, in its discretion, retain a search firm to provide additional candidates. Prior to recommending to the Board that a person be elected to fill a vacancy on the Board, the Committee will consider and review the candidate's:
- relevant skills, qualifications and experience;
 - independence under applicable standards;
 - business judgment;
 - service on boards of directors of other companies;
 - personal and professional integrity, including commitment to the Company's core values;
 - openness and ability to work as part of a team;
 - contributions to the Board's overall diversity of skills, expertise, industry knowledge, opinion, perspective and other attributes and experiences, including, but not limited to, age, gender, ethnicity/race and education;
 - willingness to commit the required time to serve as a Board member; and
 - familiarity with the Company and its industry.
8. Periodically, the Committee will review the criteria for the nomination of director candidates and approve changes to the criteria, as appropriate.

Director Independence

Each year, the Committee will:

9. Review annually the relationships between the Company and each director and report the results of its review to the Board, which will then determine which directors satisfy the applicable independence standards; and

10. Determine annually whether or not each director serving on the Board and on a Board committee is independent, disinterested and/or a “non-employee director” (as defined in Rule 16b-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, amended) under the standards applicable to the committees on which such director is serving or may serve and report the results of its annual review to the Board, which will then determine which directors qualify as independent, disinterested and/or a “non-employee director” under applicable standards.
11. Consider from time to time questions of independence and possible conflicts of interest of members of the Board.

Board and Committee Structure

Each year, the Committee will:

12. Review the advisability or need for any changes in the number and composition of the Board;
13. Review the advisability or need for any changes in the Board’s committee structure; and
14. Recommend to the Board the composition of each Board committee and the individual director to serve as Chair of each committee, and endeavor to cause one member of the Audit Committee to satisfy the definition of “audit committee financial expert” as set forth in Item 407(d)(5) of Regulation S-K (“Reg. S-K”) promulgated by the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Committee and Board Performance Evaluations

Each year, the Committee will:

15. Establish an annual process for facilitating the Board, each Board committee, and each individual director, to conduct an assessment of its and their performance (as applicable), including receiving feedback from all directors about the performance of the Board and each Committee, and reporting to the full Board the full results of the annual performance evaluations of the Board and each Committee, and
16. Establish an annual process for facilitating the evaluation by each Committee of its charter and reporting any recommended changes to the Board.

Succession Planning

Each year, the Committee will:

17. Meet periodically on succession planning relating to the Chief Executive Officer and other executive officers that is developed by management. The succession plan should include, among other things, an assessment of the experience, performance and skills for possible successors to the Chief Executive Officer. The Committee shall also monitor and review the development and progression of potential candidates against these standards and report periodically its progress on succession planning to the Board; and

18. Consult with the CEO on senior management succession planning.

Environmental, Social and Governance Matters

19. Partner with management regarding, and oversee identification of and the Company's strategy and response with respect to, ESG risks and opportunities affecting the Company.
20. Work with management to identify which ESG issues are most pertinent to the Company's business and key stakeholders and to oversee implementation of appropriate policies and processes for assessing, monitoring and managing material ESG risks and opportunities.
21. Periodically report to the Board and make appropriate recommendations for final Board or Company action regarding ESG matters, including what disclosures, if any, may be appropriate.

Activist Investor Proposals

22. Work with management to develop and maintain an appropriate governance process for considering proposals by potential activist investors, the business implications of such proposals and the Company's options.
23. Manage communications and discussion with potential activist investors on behalf of the Company, including as the point of initial contact and such additional contact as the Committee deems appropriate.

Other Powers and Responsibilities

The Committee will:

24. Develop and evaluate an orientation program for new directors and a continuing education program for current directors, and present a report to the Board and make appropriate recommendations for final Board action regarding this program;
25. To the extent required by the Company's bylaws or other corporate governance document, review and assess any director resignation tendered in accordance with the Company's director resignation policy set forth therein, and recommend to the Board of Directors the action to be taken with respect to such resignation.
26. Review the Board's policy regarding the structure of the offices of Board Chair and CEO; and

27. Review and recommend to the Board proposed changes to the Company's Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws.

IV. Procedures

- A. Meetings. The Committee will meet at the call of its Chair, two or more members of the Committee or the Board Chair. The Committee will meet as frequently as circumstances dictate. Meetings of the Committee may be in person, by conference call or by unanimous written consent, in accordance with the Company's Bylaws. Meetings of the Committee will be held at such time and place, and upon such notice, as its Chair may from time to time determine. The Committee will keep such records of its meetings as it deems appropriate.

Meetings may, at the discretion of the Committee, include other directors, members of the Company's management, independent advisors and consultants or any other persons whose presence the Committee believes to be necessary or appropriate. Those in attendance may observe meetings of the Committee, but may not participate in any discussion or deliberation unless invited to do so by the Committee, and in any event are not entitled to vote.

- B. Quorum and Approval. A majority of the Committee's members will constitute a quorum. The Committee will act on the affirmative vote of a majority of members present at a meeting at which a quorum is present. The Committee may also act by unanimous written consent in lieu of a meeting.
- C. Rules. The Committee may determine additional rules and procedures, including designation of a Chair pro tempore in the absence of its Chair and designation of a secretary of the Committee at any meeting thereof.
- D. Reports. The Committee will maintain minutes of its meetings and make regular oral or written reports to the Board, directly or through its Chair, of its actions and any recommendations to the Board.
- E. Review of Charter. Each year, the Committee will review the need for changes in this Charter and recommend any proposed changes to the Board for approval.
- F. Performance Review. Each year, the Committee will review and evaluate its own performance and will submit itself to a review and evaluation by the Board.
- G. Fees; Reimbursement of Expenses. Each member of the Committee as well as the Chair will be paid the fee set by the Board for his or her services as a member or Chair, as the case may be, of the Committee. Subject to the Company's Corporate Governance Guidelines and other policies, Committee members, including the Chair, will be reimbursed by the Company for all reasonable expenses incurred in connection with their duties as Committee members.

V. Posting Requirement

The Company will make this Charter available on or through the Company’s website as required by applicable rules and regulations. In addition, the Company will disclose in its proxy statement for its annual meeting of stockholders or in its Annual Report on Form 10-K, as applicable, that a copy of this Charter is available on the Company’s website and provide the website address.
